Q Halle Berry's skin always looks so even and smooth. What's her secret?

A Berry's skin regimen combines home treatments with regular visits to her long-time facialist, Olga Lorencin-Northrup, co-owner of the Kinara Spa in Los Angeles. For starters, Berry never goes to bed without washing her makeup off, and she drinks plenty of water to flush out impurities. She also uses Osea Ocean cleanser (below, left), a gentle formula containing red algae, which is loaded with minerals, proteins, amino acids and vitamins. Berry follows the cleanser with IS Clinical Pro-Heal serum ($110; isclinical.com), a cocktail of antioxidants, vitamins and retinol. While filming (when she wears heavy makeup all day), the actress keeps her pores clean and unclogged with Kinara Purifying cleansing gel with salicylic acid ($35) and Kinara Lactic Acid Hydrating serum (far right), which contains lactic and glycolic acids, chamomile, algae and green tea.
